

BOUNDLESS POSSIBLE

Explore Central Australia

Saturday 31 March - Tuesday 2 April 2019

StudyNT and Tourism NT invite international education agents with an interest in facilitating study tours into the Northern Territory to join us as we visit Yulara, Uluru, Alice Springs and Darwin.

The Territory is an incredible place for a study tour, with amazing natural landscapes, immersive cultural opportunities, iconic wildlife and strong study tour options. With direct flights from Asia, the Territory is easily accessible.

Experiences

- explore Uluru, home to the Anangu Aboriginal people
- Uluru's famous Field of Light – with dinner under the stars
- Earth Sanctuary – a spectacular evening of dinner, sustainability and astronomy
- experience authentic indigenous culture, over 65,000 years in the making
- networking opportunities with local education and tourism providers in Darwin and Alice Springs.

Photo by Matt Glastonbury

Photo courtesy of Tourism NT

Inclusions

- airfares from Ayers Rock Airport to Alice Springs and Alice Springs to Darwin
- accommodation (four nights)
- all activities and tours
- all meals from dinner Saturday 30 March to breakfast Wednesday 3 April.

Exclusions

- flights to Ayers Rock Airport
- flights from Darwin.

Conditions

- This familiarisation tour is exclusively for agents with a track record delivering study tour programs and who are seeking to include the Territory in their product offerings to students and educators.

- Agents must be registered and accepted by ICEF to attend ANZA Workshop 2019.
- An application and screening process will be undertaken for all applicants.
- Minimum and maximum numbers apply.
- Program begins at 1pm on Saturday 30 March 2019. Participants must make their own way to Ayers Rock Airport/ Yulara for the 1pm pick-up time.

 Applications close Monday 25th February 2019. Agents advised of outcome of application on Wednesday 27th February 2019.*

To apply now contact StudyNT

Rebecca Miniken, StudyNT
t +61 8 8999 6395
e StudyNT@nt.gov.au or studyntgovernment@gmail.com
w studynt.nt.gov.au

#StudyNT
#AusoutbackNT

TheTerritory.com.au

