Great Delegate Feedback

In the post-event survey for ICEF Berlin 2023, the organisation of the event, as well as the support and level of communication provided by the ICEF team, were rated as “good” or “excellent” by 97% and 96% of respondents respectively.

I am a first-time ICEF event attendee, and I discovered the massive popularity of ICEF in Europe. My further research uncovered the exclusivity of it, but nothing quite prepared me for what I experienced during the event. It was impeccably organised, substantive, and had rich content for growth; but, most importantly, the best platform for any educator, service provider, or agent. I am looking forward to substantive and productive partnerships going forward.

Christabel Christine Mwanza, Mimshach Education Centre, Zambia

As an education provider, ICEF events (and more specifically ICEF Berlin), allow us to meet worldwide agents in a professional, but also friendly environment. The place to be to have new contacts, but also to strengthen ties.

Christian Barjonet, Geneva Business School, Switzerland

It is truly the flagship event of the year for international education.

It is my annual pleasure to visit the ICEF Berlin event to meet partners whom we already know, and to find those who will bring new potential. As the saying goes, it is just the beginning of a beautiful friendship!

Olga Marnica, EKA University of Applied Sciences, Latvia

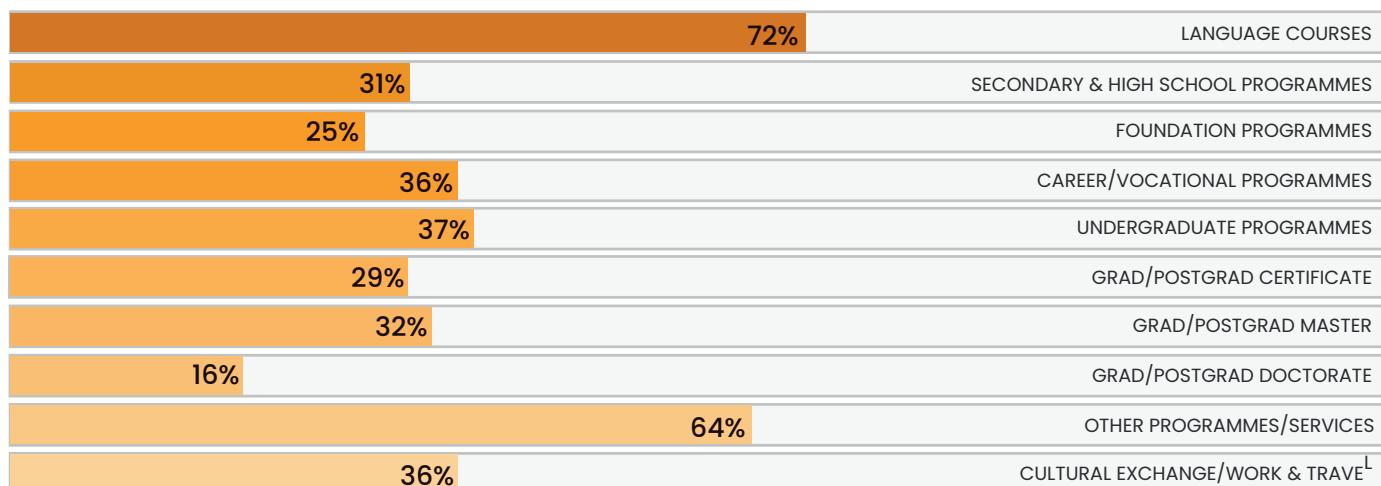

As always, ICEF knocked it out of the park with another fantastic conference in Berlin! It's impossible to describe how valuable it is to be together with so many friends, colleagues, and partners from around the world, all under one roof. Thank you ICEF team, and see you in Miami!
