ICEF Agent Training Course

The IATC is an educational course for agents, providing practical training in key professional skills:

- Comprehension of the international education market as a whole, as well as popular destination countries.
- Research methods for analysing and evaluating destination countries and their education systems
- Background and skills for handling students, educators, and governments

For more information on the IATC, please visit: www.icef.com/agent-training

All IATC course participants can take a formal test and earn the professional designation "ICEF Trained Agent Counsellor" (ITAC).

To see the current list of ITACs, please visit: www.icef.com/itacfinder

Canada Course for Education Agents

The Canada Course for Education Agents (CCEA) was created by the Department of Foreign Affairs, Trade and Development Canada (DFATD) in cooperation with ICEF and the Canadian Consortium for International Education (CCIE). The CCEA supports professional development for agents specialising in Canada.

The course provides education agents with:

- An understanding of why Canada is one of the top study destinations in the world
- An overview of the study options available in Canada, including examples of flexibility within the higher education system between programmes and institutions
- Information about how to apply to study, as well as costs and scholarships
- Tips about how to best prepare for living and studying in Canada

For more information on the CCEA, please visit: www.icef.com/ccea

Participants may take the formal examination for the Canada Course and become certified Canada Course Graduates (CCG).

To view the list of current CCGs, please visit: www.icef.com/ccgs

ICEF Agent Recognition Programme

The ICEF Agent Recognition Programme is a rigorous quality assurance procedure, which ensures that all international student recruitment agents participating in ICEF activities are reliable, quality professionals.
